Under announcements, Commissioner Reeder announced the September is National Suicide Prevention and Awareness Month. Every life has value, and there is help 24/7. If you are struggling or worried about someone, call or text 988 for the suicide prevention hotlines. Veterans can press 1. Talking about mental health reduces stigma. Warning signs include talking about wanting to die, feeling hopeless, increased alcohol and drug use, and giving away belongings. If you help people over that initial thought process, you can save a life. Commissioner Reeder also announced that there will be a suicide-prevention event "Out of the Darkness Walk" Sunday, October 5th. Participants will arrive at noon and the walk will commence at 1pm. Participants from our office walk in honor of Crist Fellman, a dedicated public servant who was lost too soon.

There were no public comments.

There were no matters to be addressed by the Solicitor.

Under new business, Lee Zeger's roof replacement recommendations were tabled at his request. It was moved by Commissioner Thomas, seconded by Commissioner Reeder and carried (Thomas, yes; Reeder, yes).

There were no Matters for Action.

There were no Veteran's Burial Allowances.

There being no further business, it was moved by Commissioner Thomas to adjourn the meeting at 9:34 a.m.
